

Argyle Free Library Bulletin Board Policy

POLICY STATEMENT

The Argyle Free Library provides space on its public bulletin boards for notices, announcements and community events. This service is extended in the spirit of community and to provide access to a wide variety of sources of information.

REGULATIONS

1. Staff may discard items not appropriate for placement, and excess copies of any items received. Library staff reserves the right to remove postings.
2. Items will be posted or made available on an equitable basis, subject to available space, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the individuals or groups represented.
3. Posting of a notice or placement of materials in a display rack does not imply endorsement by library staff or the library board.
4. Generally, notices will not be posted for longer than three weeks. The library is unable to make arrangements for any notices to be returned.
5. Library bulletin board posting guidelines:
 - a. Library staff posts all items, please give your items to library staff to be posted.
 - b. Library, local non-profit, and local educational items are priority. Local commercial items are allowed. "Local" is defined as within the Argyle Free Library service area. Staff may post non-local items when space is plentiful.
 - c. Religious and political materials are permissible for informational purposes or special events; materials which have the primary effect to proselytize for a single point of view will not be displayed.
 - d. Please limit the number of items you request to be posted.
 - e. Library staff reserves the right to remove postings.

Application of these guidelines will be based on the judgment of the Library Director. Decisions made by the Library Director may be appealed to the Library Board.
